

We think it's imperative that any legislation passed regarding Telephone privacy does not restrict the legislation already in place in the State of Indiana. We signed up for Indiana's program more than a year ago, and the relief from telemarketers has been a great blessing. I would not want any changes that would loosen the restrictions our State has in place. We used to receive at least 2 calls a day. THANK YOU Wm & Linda Bartley